1929, Anthony James Charlton was born, later to become Chief Executive.

1903 Frank Charlton established Charltons when he made the decision to diversify from farming to hauling timber.

1923 - Charltons purchase a coal business, which made return trips from the pit heads more profitable.

1980 Charlton starts making hand made furniture from English Oak.

1995 Charltons start retailing furniture.

2002 Charltons start concentrating on wholesaling a collection of Oak furniture.

2000 Charltons was granted the Royal Warrant for the supply of gates and timber to the Royal households, Charltons still hold the Warrant and has now supplied the Royal Households for over 15 years.

Today Charltons remains a family company with the fourth generation very much the 'heart and sole' of the modern organisation.

Lilli – An elegant collection of dove white painted furniture that has been carefully styled to give a grown up look, with stylish features such as paneled sides, framed drawers and square legs. The lacquered solid oak tops have been carefully finished with a deep chamfered edge. This range is finished with an oak and metal handle to give a more contemporary look.
